

Women's Health Physiotherapy

A Guide for Patients

What is Women's Health Physiotherapy?

The service provides advice, education and exercises for different conditions that women may experience. Women's Health Physiotherapy is an effective way of managing these conditions.

The Women's Health Physiotherapy team provide out-patient appointments at Brighouse Health Centre.

Who will treat me?

Our team consists of registered physiotherapists with specialist post-graduate training in Women's Health. You may be invited to a pelvic floor advice and education group prior to starting your treatment. There are telephone and face to face appointments available.

What sort of conditions do Women's Health Physiotherapists treat?

- Antenatal and postnatal pelvic girdle pain
- Other pregnancy related musculoskeletal disorders
- Antenatal/postnatal abdominal muscle separation (Diastasis recti)
- 3rd/4th degree tears
- Continence issues related to the bladder/bowel
- Female sexual pain (Dyspareunia)
- Pelvic organ prolapse
- Pre-operative gynaecology surgery
- Painful coccyx

What will happen at initial appointment?

These appointments last up to 60 minutes. Details of your medical history, symptoms and problems experienced will be taken in order to give the appropriate advice and agree a treatment plan.

What can I expect?

- Education and advice on the self-management of your symptoms
- Tailored exercise regime
- Advice and instruction on the use of any equipment
- A vaginal examination may be necessary depending on your diagnosis, with your consent. A chaperone can be present should you request one.

What if I cannot attend my appointment?

If you are unable to attend your appointment please contact the Booking Office on: 01484 905380

If you are ill with vomiting or diarrhoea, you must be symptom free for 48 hours before attending.

If you are unwell, or have any new respiratory infections, please do not attend until you feel well again.

If you are unsure whether to attend, please contact one of the following numbers to discuss:

Future Appointments

Your physiotherapist will advise you on how and when to book any necessary follow up appointments.

If you have not booked a follow up appointment within 4 weeks of your last appointment you will be discharged unless your physiotherapist has agreed otherwise.

Attendance Policy

In line with the Calderdale and Huddersfield Foundation Trust Patient Access Policy if you do not attend any physiotherapy appointment without advanced notification you may be discharged.

You may also be discharged if you cancel two follow up appointments.

Please note late arrival may result in the physiotherapist being unable to see you and your appointment being rebooked.

A checklist before your first appointment

When you make your appointment please ensure that you make a note of the time and type of appointment, either telephone, virtual or face-to-face appointment. If it is a face-to-face appointment please make sure you have directions of how to get to the department. First appointments are up to 60 minutes and follow up appointments are up to 30 minutes.

When you attend, please have the following information available:

- Complete medical history
- Prescription list
- Where possible we ask that you do not bring relatives or children to sessions as treatment areas cannot always accommodate them.

Please allow time to park when coming to the hospital
