

Talk to Us: Compliments, Comments, Concerns or Complaints

You have the right to raise concerns or to make a complaint about your care or treatment.

You can comment on the service offered by speaking directly to staff.

Or you can write a letter to the ward or department.

If you would prefer to speak to someone who is not part the ward or department you can speak to the patient advice.

You can telephone between 9am till 5pm

Monday to Friday

Telephone: 0800 013 0018 or 01484 342825.

You can email PALS at patientadvice@cht.nhs.uk

Feedback can also be provided through our website at www.cht.nhs.uk

Letters of complaint should be addressed to:

The Patient Advice and Complaints Department
Calderdale and Huddersfield NHS Foundation Trust
Acre Street
Lindley
Huddersfield HD3 3EA

Email: patientadvice@cht.nhs.uk

The complaint will be given to a member of staff to investigate they will ring you to talk it through.

If your complaint is about services not provided by our Trust.

We will contact you to ask you if you want a separate or joint response.

If you would like a joint response we will need your permission to share information with the other agencies involved.

Once the investigation is complete they will write a letter to you to explain the findings and what actions have been taken.

If you need support to understand the letter or would prefer to meet this will be arranged.

If you are not happy with the complaint response you can contact the patient advice team.

If you are not happy with how we have dealt with your complaint you can contact the Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman.

The ombudsman makes final decisions on complaints that we have not been able to resolve.

Their service is free for everyone. To take a complaint to the ombudsman go to: www.ombudsman.org.uk

or telephone 0345 015 4033

Do you need support?

The NHS Complaints Advocacy can provide independent advice and support.
